

PET PORTRAITS in CHARACTER

THEMED • HISTORICAL • ROYALTY

STORYBOOK • SPORTS • CELEBRITY

by Tim Bowers

Animals have always been a favorite subject in my artwork. My first painting, created when I was ten or eleven years old, was a portrait of a dog. I grew up around a lot of animals, including my grandparents' ponies, chickens, dogs, cats, a squirrel monkey and an African grey parrot.

I've enjoyed a thirty-year career of creating animal characters with personalities in over fifty children's books. Now, I am offering to create a custom portrait of your pet as a unique character, combining your pet's likeness with an imaginative background, setting, props and costume. Your beloved pet can be cast as a variety of characters, including historical, storybook, sports, royalty and more.

Your pet is one of a kind and I will create a portrait in character that is also one of a kind.

A good photograph of your pet is extremely important. Good photos will allow me to capture a true likeness of your pet. You will be involved of the entire process, from choosing the portrait composition, approving the work in progress and reviewing the final painting (digital copy) before receiving the artwork.
